DEATH OF MISS LIZZIE ALLEY

Miss Elizabeth Simmons Alley, affectionately known by her friends as "Miss Lizzie," died at her residence, 230 Ker street, on Wednesday, February 26, 1941, at 3:15 p. m. after a long illness.

The funeral will be held this Friday, afternoon, at three-thirty from late home of deceased, proceeding to the Methodist church, Rev. E. W. Ulmer conducting the service. Interment will be in Machpelah cemetery.

Miss Alley was born in Ocean Springs, Miss., on the second day of February, 1863, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cadmus H. Alley. She had lived in Pascagoula for the greater part of her life, where she was active in church and social circles. She was a devout member of the Methodist church, and was, up to the time of her last illness, treasurer of the Machpelah Cemetery Association. She was known and loved by every citizen of Pascagoula for her gentle, womanly virtues and her readiness to help those in distress. The call of trouble or distress was never unneeded by her, and many of those who survive her have an affectionate recollection of her many benefactions, her kindly advice, and her cheerful social contacts. Pascagoula mourns the passing of a sweet and noble woman.

Deceased is survived by a brother and two sisters: Norwood W. Alley of Pascagoula, Mrs. C. L. Bennett of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. Myra Paulk of Shawno, Wisconsin. One sister, Mrs. Hettie Cowan Gregory, died about a month ago. In addition to brothers and sisters there are a number of nephews and nieces and other relatives surviving.

The bereaved relatives have the sympathies of hundreds of friends.
